General Information – Three-Phase Classes

The JUNIOR Pre-Elementary Division will be considered the Thelwell division—Riders will be allowed to wear any bit to help keep their horse in the ring and off of the grass and stoppable. Standing martingales, grazing reins and running martingales will be allowed. No side reins. No martingales adjusted too tight for safety. Mild encouragement during cross country will be allowed only in this division.

ALL classes are run in accordance with USEA rules along with the understanding that the classes are geared towards horses and riders have a positive and safe experience at the lowest of levels.

When mounted all riders must wear proper foot attire and helmets. ALL participants in a three-phase event must wear a safety vest on cross country course and medical armband!

All registration forms, payment and copy of 2009 neg. coggins must be postmarked no later than 7 days prior to the event. $20. post entry fee added to entries received after that. No guarantee that there will be space.
